We are still enjoying our new book The Tiger Child in Literacy and have been learning about nouns and plural nouns. In Maths we have been understanding and recognising different values of money and looking at odd and even numbers. Year 2 are still working really hard preparing for their SAT's, keep up the good work Year 2!

On Friday 18th May we will be celebrating the royal wedding, by having a King and Queen's day. We are having a fancy dress day where the children can wear clothes and be like a king or queen for the day.
