

Friday 22nd March 2019

This week has been assessment week for Year 1 and Year 2.
They have all tried their absolute best and have done themselves proud.
The KS1 team are certainly very proud of them!

Next week is a very exciting week as we are having duck eggs delivered. The children will get chance to watch the ducklings hatch and will have the responsibility of looking after them for the week.

On Thursday 28th, a theatre company are coming in to do a performance and workshops with all of the classes in school.

A polite reminder that every child should have a P.E kit in school please.
